"Great Businesses Making a Great Community"

President's Message

Who you gonna call?

Pardon my grammar, but really...Who do you call when you need products or services? Is your answer...a Pasadena Business Association member? If not, why not? Here's why looking to our fellow PBA members first when shopping is the right choice.

Doing business with my fellow PBA members gives me peace of mind. There are so many sources out there...for everything. But how many can you just pick up the phone to chat. Do the companies you are doing business with really know you? If not, how do you know they have your best interest in mind?

There are many member benefits to being a PBA member. One of the most overlooked benefit is that PBA offers us so many opportunities to get to know each other. If you are not attending General Membership Meetings, Networking Mixers, Workshops, Ribbon Cuttings and Special Events such as PBA Shop Local Festival, Golf Tournament, Crab Feast & more...You are missing chances to connect with other local business professionals. Not only is getting to know your fellow PBA Members a great resource for you, but it also reminds others to do business with you and refer business to you.

Another excellent way to reinforce the connection between you and other businesses is to get involved. Consider joining a committee or lending a hand at one or more PBA sponsored events held throughout the year.

To learn more, Contact PBA Executive Director, Sandi Parrish at 410-360-4PBA or email:

PasadenaBusinessAssociation1@verizon.net

Or...Give me a call and I'll be happy to help you make the most of your PBA membership.

Meanwhile, keep your PBA Directory handy for all your shopping needs or view the online directory at:

www.PasadenaBusinessAssociation.com

VCA Calvert Veterinary Center
20th Anniversary Open House

If you missed going to Dr. Christine Calvert owner of VCA Calvert Veterinary Center's 20th year Anniversary open house, you missed a great event! Dr. Calvert and her staff put on a wonderful display of various animals for everyone to see.

They even had baby calves and other farm animals for people to pet and get a photograph with. Some of the other pets that were there were parrots, reptiles (to include a large tortoise), as well as dogs. I even saw a guy walking a cat on a leash. They had an ice cream truck and some vendors on site as well. I'm glad she had a perfect weather day for her event. I spoke to a lady who runs a parrot rescue that rehomes parrots. They live 40+ years. In fact, there was a 30 year old African Grey being adopted at the event to a new owner who was vetted through the parrot rescue organization. This particular birds mother recently passed at 90 years old!

Anne Arundel County Police also put on a K9 demonstration for the audience.

VCA Calvert Veterinary Center offers a variety of per services. Stop in or go to their website site to see the array of services that are provided. They can care for a variety of animals.

Orrstown Bank

8108 Jumpers Hole Rd. Pasadena, MD 21122

410-760-2500

In 1919, a group of community leaders in the small town of Orrstown, Pennsylvania saw the need to form a bank to meet the financial needs of the citizens. More than a century later, Orrstown Bank has become one of the region's most successful and influential community banks, offering a full range of consumer, business, and wealth management services.

Headquartered in Shippensburg, Pennsylvania, with additional regional executive and administrative locations, including Harrisburg Pennsylvania, Orrstown Bank has grown to 21 banking offices and 4 business offices across 10 counties in Pennsylvania and Maryland. With $3 billion in assets, Orrstown Financial Services, Inc., the parent company of Orrstown Bank, is one of the largest independent community banks headquartered in the region and is publicly traded on the NASDAQ market under the symbol ORRF.

At Orrstown Bank, we uphold the timeless tradition of providing personal service rooted in the community. Understanding clients' needs and building a trusting relationship is important to us. If you're looking for a bank big enough to provide products and services needed to achieve your financial goals but small enough to greet you by name, visit us and get to know Orrstown Bank.
